The MetroHealth Foundation Names New Board Members

(Cleveland, Ohio) – The MetroHealth Foundation announces the appointment of four new members to its Board of Directors. Robert A. DeAngelis, Larry Goodman, Brenda Kirk and Claire Zangerle were recently elected to serve three-year terms on the Board, which guides the strategic direction of the Foundation and raises philanthropic support for MetroHealth.

Robert A. DeAngelis is Executive Vice President and Consumer/Small Business Segment Leader for Key Community Banking. He is responsible for developing client strategies, programs, and products for Key's Consumer and Small Business customers. Prior to joining Key, DeAngelis spent ten years with Wachovia Corporation and its predecessors.

Larry Goodman, Ph.D., is the Director of Strategic Programming at Laurel School, where he oversees the implementation of the school's strategic plan including developing strategic partnerships with key educational organizations in the region. Goodman is also Co-Director of the school's Center for Research on Girls, where he develops curriculum based on research on how girls learn and grow.

Brenda Kirk is Vice President, Sales, Americas, at Hyland Software. She joined Hyland in 2000 and has held several positions in support of the company's sales initiatives. Prior to joining Hyland, Kirk held various positions in the Equity Residential Properties Trust management team.

Claire Zangerle is President and CEO of the Visiting Nurse Association of Ohio (VNA), the area's oldest and largest home health and hospice organization. Prior to joining the VNA in 2008, Zangerle was Chief Nursing Officer at The Cleveland Clinic.

The MetroHealth Foundation is instrumental in supporting The MetroHealth System's mission of providing high quality health care regardless of ability to pay and its vision of being a national leader in preserving and promoting community health. The Foundation collaborates with The MetroHealth System in determining strategic objectives for growth and proactively pursues philanthropic support opportunities to secure the mission and vision. The MetroHealth Foundation funds programs and projects in patient care, scientific and clinical research, and medical education.
