MetroHealth
Devoted to Hope, Health, and Humanity

The Legal Aid Society of Cleveland
Since 1905

FREE LEGAL HELP

Legal Aid and MetroHealth have partnered to provide free legal services to low income patients through the Community Advocacy Program (CAP) – a medical-legal partnership.

LEGAL AID CAN HELP WITH:

Education Special Education, School Discipline, Student Loan Problems

Income and Health Benefits Problems with Ohio Works First (Cash Assistance), Medicaid/Medicare, Food Stamps, SSI and Social Security Disability Benefits, Veterans Benefits

Housing Lead Exposure & Other Poor Housing Conditions, Evictions, Foreclosures

Work and Employment Record Sealing, Wage Claims, Federal Income Tax Debt, and Unemployment Compensation

Family Domestic Violence, Some Divorce, Custody, & Child Support Issues, Wills and Guardianships

Consumer Issues Bankruptcies, Public Utility Issues, Debt Problems

Immigration Petitions for Immigrants who are Victims of Crime/Domestic Violence, Family Petitions, Naturalization (citizenship), and Detention and Deportation

Legal Aid does not represent clients in criminal cases

MetroHealth Providers

Patients can be referred to the medical-legal partnership with Legal Aid Through the CAP REFERRAL ORDER in EPIC

Patients Ask your MetroHealth provider for a referral to CAP

Learn more about Legal Aid and how they help at: www.lasclev.org
Learn more about MetroHealth at: www.metrohealth.org